

...The Missing Link in International Missions

#BeTheChurchInternationally

Want to learn about International Partnerships in Missions?
Interested in investing and making sure that you are helping and not hurting?
Is promoting healthy missions through your church important?

Tune in on July 25th, 2017, as Rev. Eric Soard, Global Ministries missionary and 7 year veteran of missions in Tanzania, presents about best partnership practices.

When: July 25th first at Noon and again at 6 pm.

Where: Aldersgate United Methodist Church, Montgomery, AL
AND

On Facebook live at Eric and Liz Soard: Attempting to Be the Church in Tanzania

How: Participate in person or watch live on-line. If you are on-line you can still ask questions during discussion times by responding to the on-line video or on twitter @EricSoard. A handout will be provided on the Facebook page prior to the video going live.

Biography of the presenter:

Rev. Eric Soard, deacon in the Memphis Conference, has been in Tanzania in various roles with the United Methodist Church since 2010. He earned his BA in Religious Studies from Lambuth University and his MA in International Development from Eastern University. He has participated in church planting, orphan care, primary, secondary, and college education, economic and community development, leadership training, and organizational development of local churches, districts, the Tanzanian Annual Conference, and a few non-profits in Tanzania.

Contact information: ericsoard@umcmiissions.org ; (731) 616-8506;
www.ingodslife.blogspot.com